

ABSENCE FROM WORK

You only need to see your GP for a fit note if you are off work through illness for more than 7 consecutive days.

You do not need to see your GP:

- If you are off work through illness for less than 7 consecutive days.
- If you are returning to work after illness you do not require a return to work certificate.